We use only the freshest locally sourced ingredients from our Vermont farm partners

beautiful private grounds

With 150 secluded acres rich with mountain views, stone walls, a labyrinth meditation garden, lily pond, hiking trails and our friendly alpacas, your group will be immersed in the serenity of Vermont.

west mountain inn

gatherings • meetings • events

From business conferences to writer's workshops, yoga retreats to anniversary parties, board meetings to house music concerts... there is no better place to host your special event or gathering than the West Mountain Inn. The privacy and beauty of our 150 acre mountaintop setting provides the perfect space for your group so you can focus, relax and feel truly at home.

We have 19 beautiful guest rooms, many of which are suites or apartments that can easily accommodate more than one person. With beautiful views, porches, fireplaces, and private baths, each of our charming rooms is unique. If you need additional lodging we coordinate with other local inns to provide all your accommodations onsite and nearby.

Our rustic tavern, cozy living room, game room and dining rooms offer a relaxing and inviting setting for your group to unwind. Our historic Vermont barn event space is perfect for larger groups and celebrations. Our restaurant provides delicious, seasonal, farm fresh cuisine and our chef will customize a full day's worth of menus for your group.

Just steps from our front door, you can enjoy hiking, cycling, cross country skiing, snow shoeing, and canoeing or kayaking. Golf, downhill skiing and shopping are all nearby and our staff is ready to coordinate special outings, transportation and equipment for your group.

dining and menu options

Working directly with local, organic farms and food producers, our chef prepares delicious New England fare with only the best seasonal ingredients. Everything served is made with local farm fresh produce, free-range meats and poultry, seasonal game, Vermont artisan cheeses and home-baked breads and desserts. As long time members of the Vermont Fresh Network (a partnership of Vermont chefs, farmers and food artisans) we are dedicated to supporting local agricultural and bringing the best of Vermont's fresh, sustainable ingredients to your table.

From breakfasts and brunches - business lunches to picnics - formal dinners to BBQ's or woodfired pizzas made in our outdoor pizza oven, we can customize a full day of meals or a single dining event depending on your group's plans and needs. View our sample menus and speak with our event coordinator to create a customized menu or complete meal plan to fit your group and budget.

dining spaces

We have a number of options for dining spaces, depending on the size of your group, the meals served, and the style of your event. Our main and private dining rooms accomodate up to 90 guests depending on the set up. For larger groups our historic barn seats up to 240, or our lawns can be tented for up to 350 guests. Weather providing, we can also set up al fresco dining and full bar in several areas on our scenic grounds.
